There are activities and games your child will remember from the Interactive Whiteboard to explore also.
Visual	As Ireland moves into the next stage of fighting the COVID-19 Pandemic we must support our 'Front-Line Heroes.' These are the doctors and nurses, the porters and care assistants, the shopkeepers and all the other people who are providing essential services. Make a card or write a letter to brighten their day and let them know you are grateful.	Art English SPHE	This activity can be completed at your child's own level. This can be a natural opportunity to talk to your children about the effect COVID 19 is having on their lives. Reassure them the 'Front-Line Heroes' are doing all they can to keep the country safe.
Physical	Imagine you are a personal trainer. Design and plan a session that the whole family can participate in. Make sure to include a warm up some key exercises / games and a cool down.	PE Drama	For anyone following #PEwithJoe this could be a great opportunity for positive leadership. Why not record the video and watch it back together.
Interpersonal	Do a surprise chore every day, something that you haven't been asked to do. You will be helping someone else out. It could be your random act of kindness for the day! Eg, you might set the table or tidy your room.	SPHE Maths (Time)	Children thrive on routine. Get up, Make the bed, Get dressed before breakfast. Involve your children in planning the day. Make a daily timetable together as a team. Include some chores. Older ones can design the timetable and younger ones can tick off the chores as they are completed.
Verbal	Visit The World of David Walliams choose Eleveses and 'enjoy 20ish minutes of pure fun.
